A WatchDOG's Day at Lewis

- ⌘ WatchDOGS arrive at 7:10 and report to the front office.
- ⌘ They are given a WatchDOGS policies folder to sign and help at car duty.
- ⌘ WatchDOGS then meet their children in the media center to be introduced on the morning announcements.
- ⌘ The WatchDOG dad gets a picture with his kids and receives his schedule for the day!

So...what does a WatchDOG schedule look like?

- ⌘ 45 minutes in different classrooms throughout the day (K-5, SPED, Specials).
- ⌘ Lunch with your child
- ⌘ Report to the media center at the end of each day
- ⌘ Help at the bus port

A DOG Day

WatchDOGS go into classrooms.
Teachers may have activities like...

- Flash Cards
- Counting money
- Reading Stories
- Helping with make-up work
- Playing educational games...

Positive Role Models

& WatchDOGS are examples of a positive male role models in the classroom and in the hallways.

A DOG Day is a memory
that will last FOREVER!

Father Involvement...

Studies have shown that children who have involved dads develop more:

- ⌘ Socially
- ⌘ Academically
- ⌘ Emotionally
- ⌘ Intellectually
- ⌘ Physically

The Simple Facts...

Children who do not have the influence of a father have a tendency to fall prey to the worst that our society has to offer:

- ∅ Drop out
- ∅ Drugs and alcohol
- ∅ Crime and violence
- ∅ Teen pregnancy
