

Campbell Middle School Honor Code

As a member of The International Baccalaureate Middle Years Program (IB-MYP), Campbell Middle School is committed to developing students who will make a meaningful contribution to the world, both during and after their educational experience. Students and faculty are part of a class, school, district and global community devoted to learning. There is honor in being part of this community. Therefore, in order to sustain this honor, each individual must take personal responsibility to conduct himself or herself by demonstrating honesty and integrity in their conduct. Acts of lying or cheating compromises the principles of what it means to be a citizen of Campbell Middle School.

As an IB school, the expectation is that each student will strive to promote respect, responsibility, honesty, compassion, and will encourage the same conduct from their fellow students. This means unless otherwise indicated, any work submitted by a student is to be the original work of that student since cheating and plagiarism undermine the basic trust that must exist between the faculty and students.

Disciplinary Action

- Assignment of a zero for that particular grade
- Teacher notification to parent regarding incident
- Student / Administrator conference

After the first offense, all subsequent offenses are directed to the grade level administrator for insubordination. Incidents of cheating are cumulative over the student's middle school enrollment.
