

Russell's PBIS Stakeholders Survey

(Total participants were 177. Students -16%, Parents – 78%, Community Members – 6%)

	Answered: Yes	Answered: No
Are you aware of the school-wide expectations? Russell's Expectations: Respectful, Responsible, Role Model	98%	2%
Are the school-wide expectations important in your community?	98%	2%
Have you talked to your student(s) about Russell's school-wide expectations and how they can be applied at home or in the community?	86%	14%
Are you aware of the process for addressing classroom versus office-managed behavior and the associated consequence for each?	78%	22%
Are you aware of the acknowledgements at Russell? Russell's Acknowledgement System: Russell Bucks	91%	9%
Please share any input you have to strengthen PBIS implementation at Russell.	-If it ain't broke don't try to fix it. -I think you should give kids free Russell bucks every time they do the three Rs. -I think that your should give kids Russell bucks every time you get 3rs on your paper and if they get an 2 or an 1 you shouldn't give them Russell bucks. -I don't like Russell bucks cause some people brag about having more Russell bucks. -I like the Russell buck idea because it is a small reward if your good to your teachers and fellow students, then their is the Russell buck store where you can buy little toys with your Russell bucks. -I think you guys are awesome. You communicate extremely with parents keeping us informed with what's going on with our child and that's appreciated tremendously. -Thank you so much for your dedication to your youth. Unless your child has behavioral trouble, families (including ours) may not be aware of what's handled at the office level verses the classroom.

