BRING CHANGE 2 MIND (WEBSITE)

BringChange2Mind.org is a not-for-profit organization created by Glenn Close, the Child and Adolescent Bipolar Foundation (CABF), Fountain House, and Garen and Shari Staglin of IMHRO (International Mental Health Research Organization). The idea of a national anti-stigma campaign was born of a partnership between Glenn Close and Fountain House, where Glenn volunteered in order to learn about mental illness, which both her sister and nephew suffer from. This is the first effort of this magnitude in U.S. history. Ron Howard generously donated his time in directing our first PSA that features Glenn Close and her sister, Jessie Close. John Mayer generously donated his song, Say, which serves as an anthem for this movement.

RENA ZWEBEN, PH.D.

Specializes in OCD and Anxiety. I have 22 years of experience working with school age children, adolescents and adults. My primary focus is working with people with a variety of anxiety disorders, including panic disorder, phobias and OCD. I also work with people with Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder, Adjustment Issues and Mood Disorders. I assist with parenting issues and behavior management strategies and generally take a problem solving approach to many of the issues my patients encounter. My approach to working with anxiety disorders is largely cognitive behavioral in nature. I do exposure work and, in the case of OCD, response prevention. I teach strategies to cope with the anxiety. When people come to me to work on their anxiety problems, I work "in vivo." That means that if you have difficulty with anxiety while driving, then I take you driving. If you have OCD regarding germs, I expose you to germs. This is all done in a safe, supportive environment.
