What are the SAT and ACT?

Why are they important?

TESTING

The SAT and ACT are standardized tests that colleges use to determine how prepared you are to take college-level courses. Depending on the institution and your high school GPA, the college/university might require these tests for admissions. The SAT and ACT can also open the door for scholarships!

SAT

PSAT

Cobb County affords all 10th grade students the opportunity to take the PSAT. This exam is designed to prepare you for the SAT. You can also visit College Board to take additional practice tests!

To access your PSAT scores and register for the SAT, visit CollegeBoard.org!

SAT

You can register for the SAT through College Board. The test has 4 sections: reading, writing, math with a calculator, and math without a calculator. Keep in mind any deadlines when registering!

During your junior year, contact your counselor to see if you qualify for fee waivers.

ACT

PRE ACT

Some schools offer the PreACT to their students. The PreACT can provide insight into your performance on the ACT. You can also take practice ACT tests on ACT.org!

ACT

You can register for the ACT through ACT.org. The test has 4 sections: English, math, reading, and science. Keep in mind any deadlines when registering!

For more information, visit ACT.org!

During your junior year, contact your counselor to see if you qualify for fee waivers.

ASVAB

The Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery (ASVAB) is an exam that measures developed abilities and helps predict future academic and occupational success in the military. This exam is available to all students who seek information about their skill set.

Contact your counselor for more information about this exam!
