Did You Know

Keheley Chorus performs at the Marietta Square Tree Lighting. While there are many other local performers and schools there, Keheley is the only Cobb County School District school invited to join.

Last night our chorus, led by Mr. Ian Nathanson, did an outstanding job representing Keheley and CCSD! We are so proud! Follow @keheleycomets on Instagram for pics and videos of the event.

Please donate to Dobby's Sock Drive and help our community stay warm this winter.

We are collecting socks, scarves, hats and gloves.

Look for the donation box in the atrium December 4th –15th.

Harry Potter Club's Dobby Sock Drive

Please consider donating your gently worn or new socks, scarves, hats, and gloves to help keep members of our community warm this winter. Items collected will be donated to MUST. Look for the drop off bins around the building.

Christmas at Piedmont

Our talented chorus will perform at 3:00pm on Saturday, Dec. 9. There are many family holiday events and things to enjoy while at the event. Please remember there is no parking at the church. Event parking will be located at Old Time Pottery, located at 2949 Canton Rd., Marietta GA 30066; this is the only parking option for Christmas at Piedmont. Six shuttle buses will run between these locations to Piedmont Church.

Deadline Extended - Dec. 12

SORA is a free online digital library:

SORA is an amazing digital library for your child's reading pleasure. SORA allows students to access digital books using a computer, tablet, or smartphone. With a vast collection of e-books and audiobooks, SORA makes reading accessible anytime, anywhere. Tailored to students' preferences, it's a personalized literary journey. We encourage you to take time to set up the app or favorite the SORA website on your computer. The holiday breaks are a wonderful time for students to delve into this resource and log their reading time on Beanstack. Thanks to all who logged in their Beanstack reading minutes over the break. Keheley is currently at 14,905 points.
