Happy Holidays

Dear Keheley Families,

As we approach the holiday season, I want to take a moment to share a heartfelt message with all of you. This time of year invites us to reflect on the important things in life—peace, kindness, and joy. There is a way that we can live, and that way is through peace.

Peace is more than just a word; it's a way of being. Peace is shaking someone's hand and being a good friend. It's having fun together, building memories that last. Peace is sharing your nice smile and spreading sunshine wherever you go. Peace is helping with our hands, offering a kind word or a helping hand to those in need. And when we embrace peace, we create a ripple effect that spreads throughout our community.

In the spirit of the season, I encourage each of us to bring more kindness, more love, more light, and more peace into our daily lives. When we fill our hearts with these gifts, we not only brighten our own lives but also the lives of those around us.

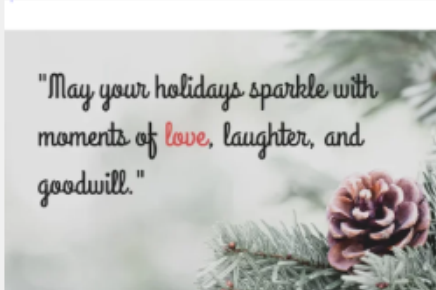

I am deeply grateful for the warm, generous, and thoughtful Keheley community. Together, we create a space where kindness thrives and our children learn not just through books, but through the example of how to live with a heart full of peace.

Wishing each of you a joyful holiday season filled with love and peace.

Warmly,

Felicia Angelle

Keheley Elementary Principal

"May your holidays sparkle with moments of love, laughter, and goodwill."

Tech Tip

New Holiday Tech

The holiday season is here, and for many, it's a time when new tech gadgets make their way into our homes. Before your kids dive into their new gadgets, take a few moments to set them up for safe and healthy use. Enable parental controls, set strong passwords, and adjust screen time settings to encourage balanced usage. Consider making family rules for tech-free times, like during meals or before bed, to promote quality time together. Start the holiday season with tech that's fun and safe!
