LONGHORN TRADITIONS

Kell has a long history of traditions and community building. Below are some of our favorite traditions that celebrate our students and support our larger Kell family:

- The Millie Threeton World of Work Fair – Over 100 colleges and businesses partner with Kell to provide students the opportunity to see and learn what it takes to get into different career fields.
- The International Festival – Over 35 different countries are represented by our Kell student body, and this event highlights our diverse backgrounds with an evening of food, music, and fellowship.
- Shop With a Longhorn – Kell students give back to the community by raising money and serving our younger Longhorns in need by giving them a holiday morning of their dreams.
- Homecoming Parade – An all-community event that culminates in a festival on the Kell Football field.
- Bright Futures Parade – A celebration of Kell's graduating seniors under the night sky and lots of lights.
