

TRANSITION SERVICES

EDUCATION. EMPLOYMENT. INDEPENDENCE.

Post-secondary Options

The type of diploma students earn may impact their options immediately after high school. Options that require a High School Diploma may not be available to students earning an Alternate/Transition diploma.

General High School Diploma

- Four Year University
- Two Year University
- Technical College
- Certification Program
- Military
- Trade School
- Job Training Program
- Apprenticeship
- On the Job Training
- Supported Employment

Alternate/Transition Diploma

- Inclusive Post-secondary Education Program (IPSE)
- Certification Program
- Job Training Program
- Apprenticeship
- On the Job Training
- Supported Employment
- Volunteer
- Day Program or Individual Community Access

SCAN ME

Scan the boxes or click the links in each heading for more information about the options.

SCAN ME

If you would like to connect with the Transition Resource Specialist that supports your school, please consult the Locations list on the Transition Services website:

<https://www.cobbk12.org/page/38587/special-education-transition-services>