

Mrs. Weeks is in her fourth year as a school counselor at Allatoona High School and her eleventh year as a school counselor, with twenty-three years of experience in education. Before joining Allatoona, she worked in the Bartow County School District and Cartersville City Schools.

Mrs. Weeks enjoys helping students navigate high school, whether they are figuring out their next steps, working through a challenge, or simply trying to make sense of it all. She believes that getting to know students and building genuine relationships with them and their families is at the heart of being a good counselor. She is grateful to be part of the Allatoona community and especially enjoys seeing students grow, find their confidence, and discover what comes next.

Outside of school, Mrs. Weeks enjoys spending time with her family, reading, traveling, and finding any excuse to get to the beach - especially Siesta Key and Cape San Blas. She is married to her husband, John, and they have two daughters. At home, she is also outnumbered by four furry family members: three cats, Ben, Baby Cat, and Phoebe, and her dog, Scout

Skills and Education

Educational Specialist Degree in School Counseling, Valdosta State University

Master of Science Degree in School Counseling, Jacksonville State University

Bachelor of Science Degree in Interdisciplinary Studies, Liberty University