

CVA U.S. History Syllabus

COBB VIRTUAL ACADEMY
Class. Virtually. Anywhere.

Class Description

A survey of the development of the United States from discovery through the present. The purpose of this course is to increase knowledge, awareness, and appreciation of America's social, political, and economic evolution from colonization to its current position as a world leader. The student will also be encouraged to think independently.

This course has three sections: US History A is the first half of the class and includes Units 1-5. US History B is the second half of the class and includes Units 6-10. US History Y is the entire class and includes Units 1-10.

Students taking the Honors course will study topics that increase the depth and scope of their study of the concepts of United States History.

Class Outline

Unit 1: The Colonial Era

In this unit, you will explore the Colonial Era, focusing on how the thirteen English colonies in North America were established and grew. You start with Jamestown in 1607 and look at how the colonies interacted with Native Americans, Europeans, and Africans. You'll learn about the different goals of Spanish, French, and English colonies. You also discuss the economic, religious, and social differences among the English colonies.

Unit 2: Revolution and Constitution

In this unit, you will explore the American Revolution and the creation of the U.S. Constitution. You explore the causes of the Revolution, key events and battles, and the roles of important figures. You'll learn about the Declaration of Independence and how the colonists fought for and achieved independence from Britain. You then examine the challenges faced by the new nation, the Articles of Confederation, and why they were replaced. Finally, you discuss the drafting of the Constitution, the debates and compromises involved, and the document's key principles and structure.

Unit 3: The New Republic

In this unit, you will explore the early years of the United States as a new republic. You examine the challenges faced by the young nation under President George Washington and his successors. Key topics include the development of political parties, domestic and foreign policy issues, and significant events like the Whiskey Rebellion and the Louisiana Purchase.

Unit 4: Crisis, Civil War, and Reconstruction

In this unit, you will explore the causes of the Civil War, including tensions over slavery and states' rights. Key events and battles of the Civil War, along with important figures like Abraham Lincoln, will be covered. After the war, you will examine the Reconstruction efforts to rebuild the South and the political and social changes that occurred. This unit highlights how this turbulent period reshaped the nation.

Unit 5: Expansion and Reform

In this unit, you will explore how America changed during the 19th century with the rise of factories and new technologies. You will learn about the growth of cities, how people worked in factories, and how big companies became powerful. You will also look at how people fought for better conditions through movements like labor unions and women's suffrage. This unit will show us how these changes affected everyday life and led to calls for fairness and change.

Unit 6: World War I and the 1920's

This unit covers the significant events and societal changes in the United States during World War I and the 1920s. You will explore America's entry into the war, the experiences of soldiers on the front lines, and the home front's contributions and sacrifices. After the war, you will examine the transition to the 1920s, a period marked by economic prosperity, cultural transformations, and social tensions. Topics include the Roaring Twenties, Prohibition, the Harlem Renaissance, and the rise of consumer culture.

Unit 7: Great Depression and World War II

In this unit, you will explore the causes and effects of the Great Depression, including the economic hardships faced by Americans and the government's response to the crisis. Then, you will delve into the lead-up to World War II, the United States' entry into the conflict, and its significant contributions to the Allied victory. Through this unit, you will gain insights into the resilience of the American people during times of adversity and the profound impact of these events on the nation's history and identity.

Unit 8: Cold War and Civil Rights

In this unit, you will explore two key periods in American history: the Cold War and the Civil Rights Movement. You'll learn about the intense rivalry between the United States and the Soviet Union, including events like the Cuban Missile Crisis. You will also study the fight for racial equality in America, focusing on leaders like Martin Luther King Jr. and events such as the Montgomery Bus Boycott.

Unit 9: Modern U.S. History

In this unit, you will analyze the impact of technological advancements, globalization, and the changing role of the United States in the world. Additionally, you will discuss contemporary issues such as immigration, environmental concerns, and social justice movements. Through this unit, students will gain a deeper understanding of the complexities and dynamics of modern American history.

CVA Work Policy

- All classwork must be completed and submitted using the links in CTLS by the DUE DATE listed on the Class Schedule.

CTLS Parent Account

Cobb Virtual Academy teachers use CTLS Parent to communicate with students and parents. Students will automatically receive communication sent from CTLS Parent via their CCSD student email address and will be asked to provide a cell phone number to receive text communications. Directions for students to set up CTLS Parent are located in the CVA Orientation. Parents will receive communications according to their existing notification settings.

Student Support

A student's first source for support is their CVA teacher. However, additional support is available. The CVA Learning Center is staffed with facilitators and is available both in person and virtually.

Facilitators can assist students with getting started, class navigation, assignment instructions, submitting work, technical issues, and strategies for online success.

The in-person Learning Center is on the Cobb Horizon High School campus at 1765 The Exchange Atlanta, GA.

All CVA students are enrolled in the Student Support digital classroom which provides access to the Virtual Learning Center (VLC). Students use the CTLS chat feature to send a message to the Student Support Team during the hours it is open.

Live Sessions

Your teacher will post live session information to the Class Board.
