

SUMMER LINK

Reading (K-2) Help your child develop their rhyming skills by creating rhyming nonsense words. For example, when you see an apple while grocery shopping, have your child create the rhyming words such as bapple, lapple or wapple. This can be done with all types of words while traveling, at home or attending summer events. This is a great way to ensure that young children have the rhyming skills needed for early reading.