

McClure Middle School

Dress Code

Cobb County School District

JCDA-R Student Code of Conduct

G. DISRESPECTFUL CONDUCT:

7. No student shall repeatedly violate the school dress code.

At McClure we ask students to come to school dressed for work each day. Specific details are listed below, but the Rule of B's is a simple way to assure students are meeting dress code.

The Rule of B's: When dressed for school and participating in classes the following should not be visible:
Bellies, Backs, Bras, Boxers, Breasts, Butts.

McClure Dress Code

- Appropriate undergarments must be worn and may not be visible.
- Slippers and rollers in shoes are prohibited.
- Clothing and accessories may not be related to "gang-wear."
- Clothing may not have suggestive phrases, designs, profanities or depict illegal activity or substances.
- Caps/hats may not be worn or visible in the building unless for an approved spirit day.
- Hoodies may not be worn on the head. Bandanas and do-rags are prohibited.
- Clothing, make-up, or hairstyles that cause disruption or undue attention are prohibited.
- Pants/Slacks/Shorts/Skirts:
 - See the Rule of B's.
 - Pajama pants, flannel pants or anything similar may not be worn unless it is an approved spirit day.
- Shirts/Tops/Blouses/Sweaters/Sweatshirts:
 - See the Rule of B's.
 - All tops must have fabric on both shoulders that are a minimum of three fingers wide.
 - See through clothing may only be worn if the clothing underneath meets dress code.
 - Shirts / tops with large armholes must have appropriate coverage underneath.
 - Crop tops or shirts that show the belly are not allowed.
- Physical Education Dress Requirements:
 - See the Rule of B's.
 - Athletic shoes with shoestrings and/or Velcro are required.
 - T-shirt must have sleeves and be long enough to be tucked in if needed.

Progressive Response:

- 1st Offense – Student will report to the front office. Student will wait for a change of clothes from a parent or be provided McClure wear. Parent will be notified.
- 2nd Offense – Student will report to the front office. Student will wait for a change of clothes from a parent or be provided McClure wear. Parent will be notified. Student will be assigned detention.
- 3rd Offense – Student will report to the front office. Student will wait for a change of clothes from a parent or be provided McClure wear. Parent will be notified. Student will receive a disciplinary referral.