KELL OVERVIEW

Carlton J. Kell High School received its first students in August 2002. Kell High School is a four-year public high school, serving grades 9-12. It is located in the suburban community in northeastern Cobb County within the greater metropolitan Atlanta area. Kell is fully accredited by Cognia. Over the years, Kell has repeatedly been named one of the Best High Schools by U.S. News & World Reports rankings.

COBB COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT

The Cobb County School District is the second largest school system in Georgia and the 28th largest in the United States. Its student population grows by nearly 2,500 each year.

Continuing a strong tradition of excellence in education, student achievement remains the primary focus. This is evident in the "report cards" that annually evaluate the performance of Georgia's schools and school districts. Cobb schools have earned 13 National Schools of Excellence and 30 Georgia Schools of Excellence awards.
