

COMPETITIONS

Here at Allatoona High School Navy JROTC, we do SO MUCH MORE than marching in formation and wearing a uniform. We travel throughout the United States to compete in Academics, Air Rifle, Color Guard, Drill, Drone, and Orienteering competitions. Each of these teams can earn the AHS Varsity Letter and compete for spots in State and National-level Championships.

Orienteering team at Kings Mountain, South Carolina for the National Orienteering (Cross-Country Land Navigation) Championship where our team placed 3rd overall out of 658 various NJROTC units nationwide.

“The competitions introduce you to hundreds of people with similar interests...you make so many friends.” –Peerce Matchett, Second Year Cadet.

CLASS ACTIVITIES

Cadets completing Physical Training during class, a rigorous but fun workout session, to build character and maintain the highest standard of physical fitness.

Our program is about leadership. We give you the guidance, training, tools, and environment that will help you increase your confidence. You will become tougher in mind and body and become better prepared to face challenges. School days offer a mix of Academics and Leadership Labs: practical exercises and group projects where you work as a team.

“It’s a challenge – designed to encourage personal growth. You will gain friendships that will last a lifetime. Is it worth it – YES!”
–Layla Arias, Fourth Year Cadet & College ROTC Full Scholarship Recipient.

Cadets are exempt from the Health / PE class for all other freshmen. NJROTC covers all that material and more in the first three semesters of the program.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Allatoona NJROTC gives back to the community through hundreds of hours of service each year. Through service, the unit instills good citizenship in each cadet, all while having fun!

- An excellent way to earn your Community Service Bronze, Silver or Gold Medal at Graduation.

AHS NJROTC Cadets doing monthly community service work at Kennesaw Mountain National Battlefield Park. Events throughout the year include fairs, races, parades, and horse shows.

“In high school, we face many challenges; being a part of the Navy JROTC Program helps teach you how to manage those challenges.”

– Eva Sotelo, First Year Cadet.

OVERNIGHT TRIPS

Cadets after spelunking in a cave in Tennessee.

Get the opportunity to go on trips across the nation. Locations visited in the recent past include: San Francisco, CA, Washington D.C., Charleston, SC, MCRD Parris Island, SC, Fort Benning, GA and Jacksonville, FL.

“If I had to sum up my first year in one word, it would be - FUN.”

– Colton Majors, First Year Cadet.

Cadets at Winners Circle of Charlotte Motor Speedway.

TEAM SPORTS

Cadets learn and play seasonal sports throughout the year (football, basketball, Marine Corps Martial Arts, soccer, softball).

Players and Instructors at Durr Field, Acworth with the Cobb County Navy JROTC Annual Softball Tournament Championship Trophy

“I didn’t realize how much of a support system – like family – that I would have. Getting involved in activities and events felt like I was with long-time friends.”

– Destany Roberts, First Year Cadet.
