

HARRISON HIGH SCHOOL

Support Services

Study Skills I (Small Group)

Course Description: This course assists students with disabilities in developing the skills required to be successful in high school course work. Reading comprehension, test-taking strategies, summarizing, paraphrasing, analyzing, evaluating, note taking, using graphic organizers, and keeping up with assignments, homework and test dates are some of the topics that will be covered. This class is taught by a special education teacher to make required accommodations in methodology and/or management.

Pre-requisites IEP recommendation

Grade Levels: 9-10 Terms Offered: Fall & Spring

Units of Credit: 1.0

Study Skills II (Small Group)

Course Description: This course assists students with disabilities in developing the skills required to be successful in high school course work. Reading comprehension, test-taking strategies, summarizing, paraphrasing, analyzing, evaluating, note taking, using graphic organizers, and keeping up with assignments, homework and test dates are some of the topics that will be covered. This class is taught by a special education teacher to make required accommodations in methodology and/or management.

Pre-requisites IEP recommendation

Grade Levels: 11-12

Terms Offered:

Fall & Spring Units of Credit: 1.0