Serving Others

What is Beta Club?

National Beta Club is the Nation's largest independent, non-profit, educational youth organization and is committed to recognizing and promoting high academic achievement, rewarding and nurturing worthy character, fostering leadership skills and encouraging service to others. Tapp Beta Club events/service projects/fundraisers may include school dances, tutoring, Tapp beautification days, Shop with an Indian at McEachern, Relay for Life, Reflections of Trinity, and donating items to those in need. This organization is run by the students; they decide what activities and events the Tapp Junior Beta Club participates in and/or creates.
